

Cash For The Coup:

The Groups Behind Capitol Riot Are Funded By Mainstream Conservative And Corporate Donors

SUMMARY: On January 6, 2021, a rally in support of overturning the results of the 2020 presidential election “turned deadly” when thousands of people stormed the U.S. Capitol at Donald Trump’s urging. The event at the center of the Capitol riot, the “March to Save America,” had the backing of a variety of conservative groups that have tried to downplay their roles in what is now widely considered an attempted insurrection against the federal government.

As conservative leaders and officials try to distance themselves from the events of January 6, 2021, an Accountable.US review has discovered that most of the groups behind the rally have enjoyed the support of some of the right wing’s biggest backers. These include:

- The Rule Of Law Defense Fund (RLDF)—which sent robocalls urging a march on the capitol—has reportedly received nearly $1.6 million from major conservative backer the Judicial Crisis Network and has taken at least $50,000 from the trade association for electric utility companies. RLDF’s parent, the Republican Attorneys General Association (RAGA), also took $15 million from major corporate donors in the first three quarters of 2020 in addition to the tens of millions of dollars it received from other stalwart conservative backers since 2014—including the U.S. Chamber of Commerce, the Judicial Crisis Network, Sheldon Adelson’s Las Vegas Sands, and Koch Industries.
- Turning Point USA, which claimed to have sent “80+ buses full of patriots” to the rally, has received millions of dollars from conservative megadonors, including the Marcus and Uihlein families as well as affiliates of the Koch brothers, as part of the over \$11 million it received from other major donors in recent years.
- Women For America First’s leader was listed on the permit for the rally, the group urged supporters to “caravan” there, and has been tied to the broader movement to overturn the election. The group has received funding from America First Policies, a “pro-Trump policy advocacy” group.
- Tea Party Patriots has taken $4.29 million just from GOP megadonor Dick Uihlein.
- The Phyllis Schlafly Eagles backed the rally after their affiliated PAC took money from a Rockefeller heir and several right-leaning organizations.
- Moms For America—which hosted a Capitol Hill rally the day before the riot—where an Illinois congresswoman claimed “Hitler was right”—took in over $230,000 in 2018.
- The Black Conservatives Fund, a group that helped promote the rally and is closely tied to the “Stop the Steal” founder, has taken \$215,000 from GOP megadonors the Mercer Family.
- Peaceably Gather, founded by a megachurch pastor to keep churches open despite the pandemic, has legal backing from the Trump-tied, anti-LGBT, and anti-choice First Liberty Institute.
- The founder of the Eighty Percent Coalition, formed shortly before the attempted insurrection, was previously on the permit for a post-election pro-Trump rally held by Women for America First that claimed to book multiple GOP members of congress (one of whom has promoted QAnon conspiracies) and a former Trump adviser (who has alleged ties to anti-Semitic groups).

- Public heiress, Julie Jenkins Fancelli, donated \$200,000 to State Tea Party Express, which “appears to have spent about $180,000 on organizing and advertising the rally that preceded the Capitol insurrection.” Fancelli is “the largest publicly known donor of the 6 January rally.”

Conservative Groups Organized A Rally To Protest Certification Of The 2020 Election Results, During And After Which The Crowd Marched To The Capitol And Stormed The Building, Resulting In Multiple Deaths

Groups Including Turning Point Action, The Rule Of Law Defense Fund, Phyllis Schlafly Eagles, Women For America First, Tea Party Patriots, And The Black Conservatives Fund Organized A Rally In Washington DC To Dispute The Presidential Election Results As Congress Sought To Certify Them

January 6th Was The Date Congress Was Scheduled To Vote To Certify The Electoral College Results For The 2020 The Presidential Election

January 6th Was The Date Congress Was Scheduled To Vote To Certify The Electoral College Results For The 2020 The Presidential Election. “As President Trump continues to claim falsely that he, and not Joe Biden, won the Nov. 3 presidential election, Congress will meet in a joint session Wednesday to formally count the votes of the Electoral College. The states have already counted their own electors, and Biden won with 306 to 232 for Trump. Now it's up to Congress to tally the votes as submitted by the states.” NPR, [1/05/21]

Conservative Groups Including Turning Point Action, The Rule Of Law Defense Fund, Phyllis Schlafly Eagles, Women For America First, Tea Party Patriots, The Black Conservatives Fund, Peaceably Gather and Eighty Percent Coalition Organized A Rally In Washington DC To Dispute The Presidential Election Results

A Series Of Conservative And Right Wing Groups Organized The January 6th “March To Save America” In Washington DC To Dispute The Results Of The 2020 Election. “Thousands of people will visit Washington, DC, Tuesday and Wednesday to demonstrate their support for President Trump, who lost the November election to Joe Biden but continues to pretend he did not. Authorities expect Trump fans to occupy large swathes of downtown DC both days and have closed many streets and restricted parking. Mayor Muriel Bowser has asked local residents to avoid the demonstrations, and we compiled more reasons to stay away... March for Trump/Save America.” Washingtonian, [1/05/21]

These Groups Were Stop The Steal, WildProtest.com, Turning Point Action, Rule Of Law Defense Fund, Phyllis Schlafly Eagles, Moms For America, Women For America First, Tea Party Patriots, Peaceably Gather, Eighty Percent Coalition, And The Black Conservatives Fund. “RLDF appeared in a list of groups “Participating in the March to Save America” on the March to Save America website alongside entities including Stop the Steal, Turning Point Action, Tea Party Patriots and others. After A Speech From Trump At The Rally, The Protestors Marched On The Capitol And Became Violent—Storming The Building In A Bid To Stop The Counting Of Electoral Votes— A Riot That Ended In Multiple Deaths

President Trump Spoke At The March And Encouraged The Crowd To March To The Capitol Building Where Congress Was Certifying The Election

President Trump Spoke At The March To Save America, Making Claims That The Election Was Stolen From Him, And Said He Would March With Them To US Capitol Building Form White House. “Several thousand protesters cheered President Donald Trump and his baseless claims of election fraud at a rally near the White House on Wednesday ahead of Congress’ vote to affirm President-elect Joe Biden’s victory. ‘We will not let them silence your voices,’ Trump told the protesters, who had lined up before sunrise to get a prime position to hear the president. . . From the Ellipse south of the White House, the protesters planned to march to the Capitol before the vote. Trump said he would be with them.” CBS Local Baltimore, [1/06/21]

At The Capitol The Crowd Turned Into A Violent Mob, Storming Past Blockades Into The Building—Police Later Found Weapons Caches And Discovered Some In The Group’s Intentions To Murder Members Of Congress

At The Capitol, The Crowd Turned Violent And Stormed Past Police Blockades And Entered The Building In A Bid To Stop The Certification. “Later at the U.S. Capitol, throngs of people pushed past police who were trying to block them from entering the building as lawmakers inside debated counting electoral college votes confirming Biden’s victory. A mob was able to breach security and successfully enter the building, where one person was shot and later died.” Washington Post, [1/06/21]

Multiple Bombs And A Car Full Of Guns Were Found Near The Capitol, And A Pro-Trump Supporter Expressed To A Friend He Traveled To DC To Murder Speaker Of The House Pelosi. “An Alabama man allegedly parked a pickup truck packed with 11 homemade bombs, an assault rifle and a handgun two blocks from the US Capitol building on Wednesday for hours before authorities ever noticed, according to federal prosecutors. Another man allegedly showed up in the nation’s capital with an assault rifle and hundreds of rounds of ammunition and told acquaintances that he wanted to shoot or run over House Speaker Nancy Pelosi, prosecutors said.” CNN, [1/09/21]

- During The Siege The FBI Found Bombs Near The Republican National Committee And Democratic National Committee Headquarters. “Wednesday, federal agents were working at the same time to detonate two pipe bombs found just blocks away at the offices of the Republican and Democratic national committees. The focus on the insurrection shifted public attention away from the explosives threat — which experts say remains a primary concern for law enforcement ahead of next week’s inauguration of President-elect Joe Biden. Investigators are increasingly worried about the potential for attacks on soft targets in the nation’s capital.” Seattle Times, [1/12/21]

The Riot Ended In The Deaths Of Five People, Including A Capitol Police Officer Beaten To Death By The Mob

Five People—including An Officer Beaten To Death By The Rioting Mob And A Woman Shot As She Violently Entered The Building—Died During The Siege Of The Capitol. “These five people from disparate backgrounds and different corners of the country now share one fate: Their lives all ended last week as a mob incited by Mr. Trump stormed the Capitol. Federal prosecutors have opened investigations into the deaths of two — the officer beaten by pro-Trump rioters, and the California woman shot inside the Capitol. But the authorities have released limited information about the deaths of the others, while families and friends have been grappling with scattered accounts of their final actions that day.” New York Times, [1/11/21]

The Rule Of Law Defense Fund – A “Fundraising Arm Of The Republican Attorneys General Association” – Sent Robocalls Urging People To March On The Capitol And Has Received Significant Financial Backing From The Judicial Crisis Network.

The Rule Of Law Defense Fund (RLDF), A Fundraising Arm Of The Republican Attorneys General Association (RAGA), Made Robocalls Urging A March On The Capitol The Day Before A Deadly Pro-Trump Attempted Coup Occurred There.

The Rule Of Law Defense Fund (RLDF), A “Fundraising Arm Of The Republican Attorneys General Association [RAGA],” Sent Robocalls Urging People To March On The Capitol The Day Before The Riots Occurred. “An arm of the Republican Attorneys General Association, a national group representing the top law enforcement officers in their states, sent out robocalls encouraging people to march to the U.S. Capitol the day before the building was stormed by a pro-Trump mob. [...] The calls, which did not advocate violence or suggest the building should be breached, was sent out by the Rule of Law Defense Fund, a fundraising arm of the Republican Attorneys General Association. The groups share funding, staff and office space in Washington, D.C.” Laura Strickler and Lisa Cavazuti, “[Republican AGs group sent robocalls urging march to the Capitol,” NBC News, 01/08/21]

RLDF Was Also Listed Among The Rally’s Participating Organizations. “A website set up to promote the rally that preceded the Capitol incursion lists the Rule of Law Defense Fund as one of the participating organizations. The site has since been taken down.” Laura Strickler and Lisa Cavazuti, “[Republican AGs group sent robocalls urging march to the Capitol,” NBC News, 01/08/21]

RAGA’s Executive Director—Who Also “Spearheaded” RLDF—Resigned Following Backlash Over The Robocalls.

RAGA And RLDF Accepted The Resignation Of RAGA Executive Director Adam Piper Following Backlash Over The Robocalls. “The executive director of a national group that advocates for Republican attorneys general has resigned in the fallout of a robocall urging people to march to the U.S. Capitol ahead of the violent assault last week. The Republican Attorneys General Association and the Rule of Law Defense Fund accepted the voluntary resignation of Adam Piper on Monday, according to a statement obtained by The Associated Press.” Meg Kinnard, “[Republican AGs group leader quits over call pushing protest,” The Washington Post, 01/11/21]

- Piper Was RAGA’s Executive Director. “The executive director of the Republican Attorneys General Association has resigned amid backlash over a decision to send out robocalls urging people to march to the U.S. Capitol.” Laura Strickler, “[Top official at Republican AGs group resigns amid Capitol robocall controversy,” NBC News, 01/11/21]

Piper “Spearheaded” RLDF. “Piper took the job in 2018, following two years as policy director for the partisan group, founded in the late 1990s that works to elect Republicans to top prosecutorial positions across the country. He also spearheaded the Rule of Law Defense Fund, a public policy organization affiliated with RAGA.” Meg Kinnard, “[Republican AGs group leader quits over call pushing protest,” The Washington Post, 01/11/21]

The Leaders Of RLDF And RAGA—Both Currently-Sitting Republican Attorneys General—Have Deflected Blame For The Robocalls.

Alabama Attorney General Steve Marshall, Who Runs RLDF, Claimed The Robocalls Were Sent Without His Knowledge. “In a statement to NBC News, Alabama Attorney General Steve Marshall, who runs the fund, said the calls were sent out without his knowledge. ‘I was unaware of unauthorized decisions made by RLDF staff with regard to this week’s rally,’ said Marshall, who assumed his role Nov. 10. ‘Despite currently transitioning into my role as the newly elected chairman of RLDF, it is unacceptable that I was neither consulted about nor informed of those decisions. I have directed an internal review of this matter.’” Laura Strickler and Lisa Cavazuti, “[Republican AGs group sent robocalls urging march to the Capitol,” NBC News, 01/08/21]

- Steve Marshall Is The Currently-Sitting Attorney General For Alabama. [Home, Alabama Attorney General, accessed 01/12/21]

A Spokesperson For RAGA Chair And Georgia Attorney General Chris Carr Claimed He Had “No Knowledge Or Involvement In This Decision.” “A spokesperson for Georgia Attorney General Chris Carr, the chairman of the Republican Attorneys General Association, said he ‘had no knowledge or involvement in this decision.’ ‘Attorney General Carr has been working diligently to determine how this situation occurred and ensure that it does not happen again,’ said spokesperson Katie Byrd. ‘The stance of the protestors was not consistent with Attorney General Carr’s position on election fraud. And, as he has been saying since moments after seeing news break, the violence and destruction we saw at the U.S. Capitol is unacceptable and un-American.’” Laura Strickler and Lisa Cavazuti, “[Republican AGs group sent robocalls urging march to the Capitol,” NBC News, 01/08/21]

In The 2022 Election Cycle, RAGA Raised Nearly $26.3 Million And “Spent At Least $8.9 Million On 2022 Midterm Elections, Largely Through Affiliated State-Level Super PACs Targeting Democratic Incumbents.”

In The 2022 Election Cycle, RAGA Raised Nearly $26.3 Million. “RAGA, a 527 political advocacy group that works to elect Republican state attorneys general, raised about $3.7 million in political contributions and membership dues in the third quarter of 2022 — $2.7 million less than it did in the third quarter of 2020, according to OpenSecrets’ review of recent tax filings. This brings its total fundraising for the 2022 election cycle to nearly $26.3 million, down 14% compared to similar periods in 2020 and 2018.” Open Secrets, [10/25/22]

RAGA “Spent At Least $8.9 Million On 2022 Midterm Elections, Largely Through Affiliated State-Level Super PACs Targeting Democratic Incumbents.” “Despite raising less in 2022 than in the past two election cycles, the Republican Attorneys General Association (RAGA) has spent at least $8.9 million on 2022 midterm elections, largely through affiliated state-level super PACs targeting Democratic incumbents.” Open Secrets, [10/25/22]

Women For America First Chair Amy Kremer Helped Peddle Her Daughter’s “Stop The Steal” Facebook Group—Which Helped Launched The Initial Movement To Overturn The Election In November

Kremer’s Daughter, Kylie Jane Created The “Stop The Steal” Facebook Group. “The idea of a stolen election quickly spread among Mr. Trump’s supporters, including to a Facebook user named Kylie Jane Kremer. Ms. Kremer, 30, a former Tea Party activist, runs a conservative nonprofit called Women for America First. She created the Stop the Steal Facebook group.” [New York Times, 11/05/20]

Amy Kremer Posted About Her Daughter’s “Stop The Steal” Facebook Group—Her Post Was Shared Thousands Of Times. “That was when right-wing figures such as Jack Posobiec, a pro-Trump activist, and Amy Kremer, Ms. Kremer’s mother and a founder of a group called Women for Trump, began posting about the Facebook group on Twitter. Ali Alexander, a political operative who previously went by the name Ali Akbar, also tweeted dozens of times about the Stop the Steal movement to his 140,000 Twitter followers. Their messages, which were shared thousands of times, were a rallying cry for people to join the Stop the Steal Facebook group and take action in local protests against voter fraud.” [New York Times, 11/05/20]

Last year, CREW reported that the State Tea Party Express was one of several groups that received funding from Fancelli in advance of January 6. The State Tea Party Express’s 2020 tax return showed the group received $200,000 from Fancelli, but it didn’t show much spending. The State Tea Party Express began 2021 with most of that cash in the bank, which made up almost half of the group’s balance. The new tax document suggests they spent much of that money on rally planning. In a section of the filing used to flesh out the group’s expenses, the State Tea Party Express reported that they spent $179,879 on ‘Rally advertising production and advertising.’” Citizens for Responsibility and Ethics in Washington, [12/20/22]
