Rep. LaLota Issued A Statement Touting His Vote For H.R. 2811, Claiming That The Bill Was "'A Reasonable Start To Put Our Nation Back On A Path To Economic Prosperity" After "'Decades Of Reckless Spending." "Today, April 26th, 2023, Rep. Nick LaLota (NY-01) released the following statement after voting YES on H.R. 2811, the Limit, Save, Grow Act. 'Today, I voted to responsibly raise the debt ceiling while simultaneously limiting government spending and saving over three trillion dollars over the next ten years. The Limit, Save, Grow Act is a reasonable start to put our nation back on a path to economic prosperity and ensures our children have as many economic opportunities as we have had,' said LaLota. 'Decades of reckless spending by both parties caused this crisis and it will take practical and thoughtful bipartisan leaders to get us out of it." [Rep. Nick LaLota, 04/26/23]

If Republicans Don't Pass A Clean Debt Ceiling Bill, The Republican-Led Default Threatens Social Security Payments For 157,451 NY-01 Constituents, SNAP Benefits For 18,000 Families, Medicaid Benefits For 181,000, And Veterans Health Benefits For 28,000 New Yorkers.

Rep. LaLota's Vote Threatens Health Benefits For The 28,000 Veterans In New York's 1st Congressional District. "Across-the-board cuts jeopardize funding for Veterans Affairs health benefits that support the 28,000 veterans in NY-01. This can cause delayed care and missed appointments that worsen health outcomes for our nation's veterans." [Joint Economic Committee via SharePoint, April 2023]

If Republicans Don't Pass A Clean Debt Ceiling Bill, The Republican-Led Default Threatens To Cut Education For 119,000 Students And Rental Assistance For 21,000 Households In NY-01.

Rep. LaLota's Vote Threatens To Slash Federal Education Funding For 119,000 Students In New York's 1st Congressional District. "Republicans' budget cuts hurt the 119,000 K-12 students in NY-01 when federal funds for education are cut." [Joint Economic Committee via SharePoint, April 2023]

Rep. LaLota's Vote Could Disrupt Rental Assistance For 21,000 Households In New York's 1st Congressional District. "There are 21,000 households in NY-01 that spend more than 30% of their income on rent. Many of these renters include low-income families who are eligible for rental assistance. Unfortunately, federal housing assistance only has enough funding for one in four eligible families, and Republicans want to cut this program even more."
