Throughout Q4 2021, Major Corporations Donated At Least $320,500 To House Minority Leader Kevin McCarthy, Who, Shortly Following In January, Refused To Cooperate With The January 6 Committee's Investigation And Could Face A Subpoena.

January 2022: The House Committee Investigating January 6 Requested Information From House Minority Leader Kevin McCarthy, Which He Has Refused To Provide And May Be Subpoenaed For.

January 2022: The House Select January 6th Committee Requested Information From House Minority Leader Kevin McCarthy. "The House committee investigating the January 6 attack on the U.S. Capitol is seeking the cooperation of Minority Leader Kevin McCarthy, saying in a statement that he has knowledge of the riot's 'facts, circumstances, and causes.'" Forbes, [1/12/22]

- The Request For Information Came After It Was Found That McCarthy Had Spoken To Trump After The Insurrection. "In his letter Wednesday, Thompson cited McCarthy's conversation with Trump on Jan. 11, during which McCarthy 'may also have discussed with President Trump the potential he would face a censure resolution, impeachment, or removal under the 25th Amendment,' Thompson wrote. “It also appears that you may have identified other possible options, including President Trump’s immediate resignation from office.” The Washington Post, [1/12/22]

CNBC: McCarthy “Said Wednesday Night That He Will Refuse To Voluntarily Give Information Sought By The Selection Committee Investigating The Jan. 6 Capitol Riot.” “House Minority Leader Kevin McCarthy said Wednesday night that he will refuse to voluntarily give information sought by the selection committee investigating the Jan. 6 Capitol riot, a stance that will put pressure on the committee to subpoena him. The California Republican’s blustery refusal came hours after the House panel sent McCarthy a letter requesting details of events in the days leading up to the invasion of the Capitol, from the day of the riot itself, and its aftermath.” CNBC, [1/12/22]

The Committee Said It Would Consider Subpoenaing McCarthy. “The leaders of the House select committee investigating the Jan. 6, 2021, attack on the U.S. Capitol said Thursday that they will consider issuing a subpoena to Minority Leader Kevin McCarthy (R-Calif.) after he refused to cooperate with the inquiry.” The Washington Post, [1/12/22]
