

Since The January 6, 2021 Insurrection At The Capitol, Major Corporations And Trade Associations Have Donated Over $826,000 To Members Of Congress Who Were Asked To Provide Testimony To The Congressional Investigation Into The January 6th Attack On The Capitol. Seven Members Of Congress Have Been Subpoenaed For Deposition Testimony And Or Requested For Interviews By The Select Committee To Investigate The January 6th Attack On The Capitol, Six Of Whom Have Received At Least $826,653 In Donations From Major Corporations And Trade Associations Since The January 6 Insurrection.

Five Members Of Congress — Reps. Kevin McCarthy, Scott Perry, Jim Jordan, Andy Biggs, And Mo Brooks — Have Been Subpoenaed For Deposition Testimony By The Select Committee To Investigate The January 6th Attack On The Capitol As Part Of The Committee’s Investigation.

The Select Committee To Investigate The January 6th Attack On The Capitol Subpoenaed Reps. Kevin McCarthy, Scott Perry, Jim Jordan, Andy Biggs, And Mo Brooks For Deposition Testimony As Part Of The Committee’s Investigation. “Chairman Bennie G. Thompson (D-MS) today announced that the Select Committee has subpoenaed Representatives Kevin McCarthy, Scott Perry, Jim Jordan, Andy Biggs, and Mo Brooks for deposition testimony as part of the committee’s investigation into the January 6th attack on the U.S. Capitol and its causes. The Select Committee is subpoenaing five members who have previously been invited to appear voluntarily before the committee because the committee has reason to believe that they have relevant knowledge of the events on or leading up to January 6th and activities related to the transfer of power.” Select Committee to Investigate the January 6th Attack On the Capitol, [5/12/22]

- After Five Members Of Congress Refused To Voluntarily Discuss Information Relevant To The January 6 Attack At The Capitol, The Committee Chairman Said It Was Forced To Subpoena The Members “To Help Ensure The Committee Uncovers Facts Concerning January 6th.” “Chairman Thompson released the following statement: ‘The Select Committee has learned that several of our colleagues have information relevant to our investigation into the attack on January 6th and the events leading up to it. Before we hold our hearings next month, we wished to provide members the opportunity to discuss these matters with the committee voluntarily. Regrettably, the individuals receiving subpoenas today have refused and we’re forced to take this step to help ensure the committee uncovers facts concerning January 6th. We urge our colleagues to comply with the law, do their patriotic duty, and cooperate with our investigation as hundreds of other witnesses have done.’” Select Committee to Investigate the January 6th Attack On the Capitol, [5/12/22]

The House Select Committee To Investigate The January 6th Have Requested Interviews With Both Rep. Barry Loudermilk And Rep. Ronny Jackson.

The House Select Committee To Investigate The January 6th Issued A Request For An Interview With Rep. Barry Loudermilk. “The House select committee investigating the Jan. 6, 2021, attack on the U.S. Capitol by a pro-Trump mob issued a request on Thursday for an interview with Rep. Barry Loudermilk (R-Ga.), citing evidence the panel has obtained regarding a tour he led through parts of the Capitol complex the day before the attack.” Washington Post, [5/19/22]

The House Select Committee To Investigate The January 6th Sent A Letter To Rep. Ronny Jackson To Request A Meeting. “The House select committee investigating the Jan. 6 Capitol riot sent letters Monday asking three Republican lawmakers to cooperate with the panel and share what they know about the deadly attack. [...] The committee’s letter to Rep. Ronny Jackson, R-Texas, included text messages sent during the riot by members of the far-right militia group the Oath Keepers, saying that Jackson ‘needs protection’ because he ‘has critical data to protect.’ The committee wants to meet with the lawmakers next week, one month before the investigators plan to start unveiling their findings in a series of public hearings.” CNBC, [5/2/22]
