TPUSA And Its Leaders Spread Disinformation Before The 2020 Election, Were Key Planners Of The Rally Preceding The Capitol Riot, And Are Closely Tied To Key Insurrectionist Figures

TPUSA Spread Disinformation Before And After The 2020 Election And Promoted The #StopTheSteal Movement

TPUSA Paid Teenage Activists To Spread Disinformation About Mail-In Ballots In The Lead Up To The 2020 Election, A Tactic Compared To Russia's Online Disinformation Campaign In The 2016 Election By The Washington Post. "Far from representing a genuine social media groundswell, however, the posts are the product of a sprawling yet secretive campaign that experts say evades the guardrails put in place by social media companies to limit online disinformation of the sort used by Russia during the 2016 campaign. Teenagers, some of them minors, are being paid to pump out the messages at the direction of Turning Point Action, an affiliate of Turning Point USA, the prominent conservative youth organization based in Phoenix, according to four people with independent knowledge of the effort. Their descriptions were confirmed by detailed notes from relatives of one of the teenagers who recorded conversations with him about the efforts." Washington Post, [9/15/20]

TPUSA Leader Charlie Kirk Had His Twitter Account Suspended For Spreading False Claims Of Voting Fraud In The Lead Up To The 2020 Election. "The Twitter account of conservative activist Charlie Kirk was locked over the weekend for spreading misinformation about mail-in-ballots." The Independent, [10/19/20]

- Kirk's Account Was Suspended After He Tweeted "Pennsylvania Has Just Rejected 372,000 Mail-In Ballots. One Voter Was Said To Have Submitted 11 Duplicate Ballots. Pennsylvania Might Be The Key To Winning The White House. What's Going On?" The Independent, [10/19/20]

TPUSA Helped Organize Early #StopTheSteal Protests That Aimed To Overturn The Results Of The 2020 Election. "Demonstrations across the country protesting alleged fraud in this week's election have ties to major conservative activist groups and MAGA personalities affiliated with President Donald Trump, according to multiple misinformation researchers. Many of these protests have been organized by prominent, well-funded pro-Trump groups such as Tea Party Patriots, Women for America First, Turning Point USA and Freedom Works USA, according to analyses from several research institutions.” Politico, [11/06/20]

Kirk Served As The Point Person For The Stop The Steal Group Whose Leader, Ali Alexander, Was Summoned By The House January 6th Committee. Further, Kirk served before 6 January as an Arizona point person for the Stop the Steal, the group led by Ali Alexander which has been subpoenaed for documents and testimony by the House Select Committee investigating the Capitol insurrection and Trump’s efforts to overturn the election results.” The Guardian, [10/23/21]

Kirk Promoted The Big Lie In The Time In Between The 2020 Election And The Capitol Riot, And Attacked Conservatives Who Accepted The Results As “Dishonest.” “Kirk, who leads the right-wing college activism group Turning Point USA, waved off the dozens of Republican election lawsuits that have been rejected by courts across the country by saying Trump supporters still have ‘very good questions’ about the election results. ‘Some of these by the way are still being played out there—there are still plenty of pending legal challenges,’ Kirk declared as Rivera shot back: ‘That is so dishonest!’” The Daily Beast, [12/14/20]

At TPUSA’s Annual Conference In December 2020, Donald Trump Claimed “We Won This [Election] In A Landslide, They Know It,” And Asked For “Backing From Like, The Justice Department” And Thanked Kirk For His Support. “On Monday afternoon, Trump himself phoned in. ‘We won this [election] in a landslide, they know it,’ the president said to the crowd via a phone call that Kirk held up to the microphone. He then added that he still needs ‘backing from like, the Justice Department, and other people have to finally step up,’ before closing by thanking ‘Charlie for all the support.... We appreciate it.’” Vanity Fair, [12/21/20]

TPUSA And Its Leader Charlier Kirk Were One Of The Main Planners Of The Rally Preceding The Capitol Riot

Turning Point Action, An Arm Of Turning Point USA Led By TPUSA’s Founder, Was Listed As An Organizer Of January 6th’s Washington DC Rally Preceding The Capitol Riot.

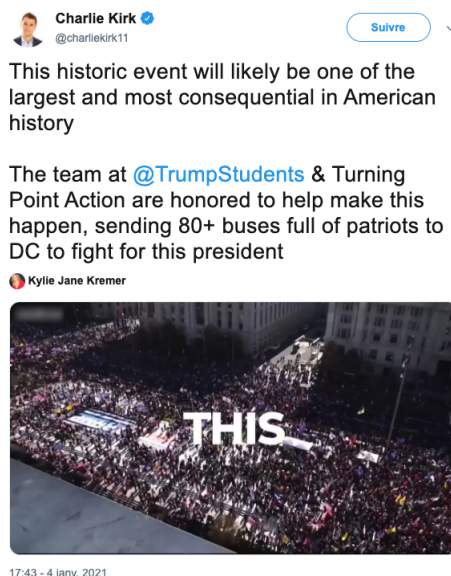

“Charlie Kirk, a firebrand conservative activist and staunch supporter of President Donald Trump, is preparing to unveil a nonprofit that will allow his organization to campaign against Democrats during the 2020 election season. CNBC discovered Kirk’s new organization, called Turning Point Action, after reviewing an embedded donor link that shows the soon-to-be-finalized group targeting Rep. Ilhan Omar, D-Minn.” CNBC, [5/20/19]

Documented, [1/11/21]

Turning Point USA Is A Conservative Group That Seeks To Organize College-Aged Conservatives. “In 2012, Kirk founded Turning Point USA, a 501(c)(3) nonprofit grassroots organization that encourages conservative college students to rally for causes such as free market policies. The Internal Revenue Service prohibits 501(c)(3)s to participate, either directly or indirectly, in political campaigns.” CNBC, [5/20/19]

After The Capitol Riot, Kirk Claimed That Rioters Were Not Insurrectionists. “A police officer was among the five people who died during the disorder. Among those seen inside the Senate chamber was a person carrying plastic zip ties, with many believing they were brought in order to take hostages. Makeshift nooses and guillotines were also spotted at the Washington protest on January 6. During the clip, Kirk said that while it was "not wise" to climb the Capitol steps and enter the rotunda, it is wrong to compare those who did to terrorists such as 1995 Oklahoma City bomber Timothy McVeigh." - In August 2021, Lindell Held A "Cyber Symposium" That He Claimed Would Demonstrate The 2020 Election Was Stolen. "MyPillow CEO Mike Lindell's mission to prove that the 2020 election was stolen from former President Donald Trump as part of a broad international conspiracy went into high gear Tuesday, when he held a "Cyber Symposium" in South Dakota. Lindell—who was sued for defamation by voting equipment manufacturer Dominion for $1.6 billion, and has counter-sued for the same amount—offered $5 million to anyone who could come to his event and prove that his alleged "cyber data" proving Chinese hacking of election equipment is invalid." - Owens Was The Communications Director Of Turning Point USA Until May 2019, When She Resigned Amidst Public Backlash To Pro-Hitler Comments She Made. "Candace Owens, the GOP darling for the moment, has officially resigned as communications director for Turning Point USA, the right-leaning organization aimed at educating college students about 'free markets and limited government,' according to its website. Owens announced her exit plans in a lengthy Instagram post on May 1, and her departure comes amid calls from supporters and members of the organization for her to step down following controversial comments she made in February about Adolf Hitler." The Grio, [5/07/19]

- In Her Resignation Letter, Owens Promised She Would Remain Close To The Turning Point USA And Will "Of Course Be Speaking At All Turning Point Conferences And Will Continue To Chair The Annual Black Leadership Summit." "She assured her followers that she would still be associated with the organization's events. 'I will of course still be speaking at all Turning Point conferences and will continue to chair the annual Black Leadership Summit in the fall,' she wrote. '...We couldn't be more excited to share this conversation with the world.'" Daily Beast, [5/02/19]

- In December 2021 Owens Was A Top Billed Speaker At Turning Point USA's New Conference Series, AmericaFest. "This month's inaugural AmericaFest 2021, a multi-day conference presented by Turning Point USA, has a predictably heavy-duty lineup of controversial speakers and politicians ready to gin up conservative outrage: Tucker Carlson, Candace Owens, and Marjorie Taylor Greene are among the usual suspects. But the event, set for Dec. 18 to 21 at the Phoenix Convention Center in Arizona, also includes two nights of country concerts with stars of varying degrees Brantley Gilbert, Dustin Lynch, Russell Dickerson, and Lee Greenwood all set to perform." On January 4, 2021, Senior Claremont Institute Fellow John Eastman Met With Trump And Pence To Propose A Six-Step Plan To Overturn The 2020 Election. "An attorney who worked with former President Trump's legal team tried to convince then-Vice President Mike Pence that he could overturn the results of the 2020 presidential election and provided him with a six-step plan, according to a new book from journalists Bob Woodward and Robert Costa. CNN, citing a memo initially obtained by the book's authors, reported that attorney John Eastman first proposed the plan to Pence on Jan. 4 in the Oval Office with Trump. The memo called for throwing out the election results in seven states under the false claim that those states had used alternate electors.” The Hill, [9/21/21]

Claremont Senior Fellow Michael Anton Helped Promote The “Stop The Steal” Campaign. “Now a Claremont senior fellow and a lecturer at Hillsdale’s Kirby Center in Washington, D.C., Anton helped to propagate Trump’s ‘stop the steal’ campaign last year” The Bulwark, [7/13/21]

- On November 4th, 2020, Anton Wrote A Piece Promoting The “Stop The Steal” Campaign Calling For Court Challenges, Rallies, And Grassroots Campaigns To Ensure Trump Was Declared Winner Of The 2020 Election Because He Felt It Impossible That Biden Won Legitimately. “the American Mind published a new Anton piece, entitled “Game on for the Coup.” Anton admits in this article that he isn’t sure what is really going on—“The thing could (but will never) be proved”—but he’s confident enough to lay out a game plan that he calls “Stop the Steal,” reusing a name that Roger Stone gave to his shady pro-Trump group in 2016. Against the Biden coup, Anton, borrowing from an article at Revolver.News (a new right-wing info site), recommends that Trumpists organize court challenges, rallies, disputes about electors, and a massive grassroots campaign in support of the president. By this point, Anton found the idea of a legitimate Biden victory implausible, partly because no one could possibly believe Biden could win” The Bulwark, [7/13/21]

TPUSA Is A Major Force Behind The Rise Of Failed 2022 Arizona Gubernatorial Candidate Kari Lake, A Noted Big Lie Proponent Who Is Actively Trying To Challenge Her Lost Election

Kari Lake Was The 2022 Arizona Gubernatorial Candidate Who Is Promotes The Big Lie And Ran On A Platform Of Re-Litigating The 2020 Election

2022 Arizona Gubernatorial Candidate Kari Lake Claimed The 2020 Election Was Stolen And Was Endorsed By Donald Trump. “Early in the campaign, Lake won Donald Trump’s endorsement by placing herself on the conservative wing of the Republican party, and more importantly, by claiming the 2020 election was stolen (though there is no evidence that it was). Her political ideology is right in line with that of his supporters.” BBC, [11/15/22]

Lake Campaigned On Bringing Back “Honest Elections” And Re-Litigating The 2020 Election. “For the next fifteen minutes Lake told this group of conservative voters what she planned to do if they elected her as governor. Her list included banning abortion, banning ‘woke’ ideology in schools, clamping down on illegal immigration and litigating the 2020 election results. ‘Without honest elections and a secure border, we no longer have a country and we’re not going to let Arizona go,’ she said.” BBC, [11/15/22]

Lake And Secretary of State Candidate Mark Finchem Had Sued To Prohibit The Use Of Electronic Voting Machines In The 2022 Midterms Only To Be Sanctioned For Filing A “Frivolous” Lawsuit

In May 2022, Lake And Arizona Secretary of State Candidate Mark Finchem Hired Lawyers To File A Lawsuit That Aimed “To Prohibit The Use Of Electronic Voting Machines” During The 2022 Midterm Election. “This is a civil rights action for declaratory and injunctive relief to prohibit the use of electronic voting machines in the State of Arizona in the upcoming 2022 Midterm Election, slated to be held on November 8, 2022 (the “Midterm Election”), unless and until the electronic voting system is made open to the public and subjected to scientific analysis by objective experts to determine whether it is secure from manipulation or intrusion. The machine companies have consistently refused to do this.” Complaint in Kari Lake et al. v. Kathleen Hobbs et al., [05/04/22]

Judge John J. Tuchi Of The United States District Court For The District Of Arizona Dismissed The Case In August. “U.S. District Court Judge John Tuchi dismissed the suit in August, calling it full of “conjectural allegations of potential injuries.” AZCentral, [12/01/22]

- Tuchi Then Sanctioned Lake And Finchem, As Well As Their Legal Team, For Failing To Properly Conduct A Factual Inquiry Before Filing Their Lawsuit. “This afternoon a federal judge sanctioned lawyers for failed Arizona gubernatorial candidate Kari Lake, who sued to force the state to use paper ballots in the November election. In point of fact, the state does use paper ballots, something which could have been determined by the plaintiff and her lawyers had they bothered to conduct ‘the factual and legal pre-filing inquiry that the circumstances of this case reasonably permitted and required.’” Above The Law, [12/01/22]

TPUSA Was A Major Supporter Of Lake’s Rise In Politics

The Washington Post Claimed That Lake’s Career “Took Off” At A TPUSA Event And She Has Filled Her Staff With TPUSA Employees. “The group’s success is reflected in the Republican midterm election slate — nearly every statewide candidate and many of those farther down the ballot have embraced Trump’s false claims that the 2020 election was rigged. The political career of Kari Lake, the state’s GOP gubernatorial nominee, took off at a Turning Point event last year, and she has filled her campaign staff with former Turning Point employees. Lake has promised, if elected, to overhaul how votes are cast and counted in this pivotal swing state.” Washington Post, [11/04/22]

TPUSA Spent More Than $600,000 On The 2022 Arizona Elections, And About Half Of That Went To Efforts To Help Kari Lake. “Turning Point expanded its political operation this year with a new PAC under Bowyer’s direction. The group has unleashed more than $415,000 in Arizona since July, according to state records, and has reported more than $600,000 in spending to the Federal Election Commission. About half of its spending in Arizona has boosted Lake after a bitter primary that pitted her against the party establishment, including the governor. But the money has also extended to legislative races in which spending is traditionally restrained. Hundreds of thousands of dollars went to Hoffman’s firm, records show.” Washington Post, [11/04/22]

After Lake Lost The 2022 Arizona Gubernatorial Election She Decided To Litigate The Election Results

Lake Spent Weeks Sowing Doubt In Any Election Results Following Election Day. “Ms. Lake’s lawsuit came after she had spent weeks making a series of public statements and social media posts aimed at sowing doubt in the outcome of a contest she lost by more than 17,000 votes to her Democratic opponent, Katie Hobbs. That loss was certified in documents signed on Monday by Ms. Hobbs, who currently serves as secretary of state.” New York Times, [12/09/22]

After Her Election Loss Was Certified, Lake Moved To File A Legal Challenge To Contest It. “Kari Lake, the losing Republican candidate for governor of Arizona, filed a lawsuit Friday contesting the results of an election that was certified by the state this week.” New York Times, [12/09/22]

Numerous TPUSA Staffers Have Been Forced To Resign Or Were Fired For Racist And Hateful Statements

Former TPUSA Staffers Have Said The Organization Is Rife With Racial Bias And Numerous High Profile Staffers Have Been Fired For Racist And Racially Insensitive Remarks. “Former Turning Point employees say that the organization was a difficult workplace and rife with tension, some of it racial. Gabrielle Fequiere, a former Turning Point employee, told me that she was the only African-American hired as a field director when she worked with the group, three years ago. “In looking back, I think it was racist,” she said. “At the time, I was blaming myself, and I thought I did something wrong.” New Yorker, [12/21/17]

Posobiec Was Key To Elevating The Reach of The “Stop The Steal” Facebook Group. “On Thursday morning, the Stop the Steal Facebook group’s growth skyrocketed further, according to data from CrowdTangle, a Facebook-owned social media analytics tool. That was when right-wing figures such as Jack Posobiec, a pro-Trump activist, and Amy Kremer, Ms. Kremer’s mother and a founder of a group called Women for Trump, began posting about the Facebook group on Twitter. Ali Alexander, a political operative who previously went by the name Ali Akbar, also tweeted dozens of times about the Stop the Steal movement to his 140,000 Twitter followers.” [New York Times, 11/05/20]

Posobiec’s Rise To Right Wing Fame Was Elevated By Ties To White Supremacy Movement, Including Richard Spencer. “Posobiec’s ties to far-right extremists travel beyond borders into Europe. His connections to white supremacy are too numerous to compile into one article, so Hatewatch is running a series of stories on the correspondent’s ties to the movement and promotion of it. This first story in the series lays out how Posobiec rose from being a pseudonymous Game of Thrones blogger to linking up with such white supremacists as Richard Spencer and a neo-Nazi who endorsed terrorism while using the online handle @PureWhiteEvil.” [SPLC, 7/08/20]

Posobiec Promoted Multiple Marches By A Polish Neo-Nazi Party—including While He Was Working For OANN. “In April 2017, Posobiec amplified for his Twitter followers an event staged by the Polish neo-fascist political movement called Obóz Narodowo-Radykalny (ONR). ONR has a long history of promoting and emulating Nazism. As the German Nazi movement of the 1930s rose across the border, ONR sought a “cleansing” of Jews in Poland. ONR members were also responsible for a wave of violence targeted at the country’s Jewish population. As recently as June 2019, authorities opened an investigation into ONR after they publicly commemorated the memory of a Belgian member of the Schutzstaffel (SS), which was the paramilitary arm of Hitler’s Nazi party. Posobiec, as well as Canadian white nationalist pundit Stefan Molyneux, participated in a march on Warsaw that included ONR, as well as a collection of other extreme far-right groups. Marchers that day chanted “white Poland,” according to a report in The New York Times. The march took place in November 2018, while Posobiec was employed by OANN. Someone took a picture of him at the march, walking with a child in his arms.” [SPLC, 07/22/20]

Posobeic Has Collaborated And Promoted The Work Of Neo-Fascists, Pro-Hitler Commentators, White Nationalists, And Anti-Semites. “Far-right commentator Jack Posobiec is a current host on One America News Network (OANN), an information network widely known to distort facts and which has been embraced by President Trump. This investigation has found that Posobiec — a Trump favorite — has collaborated with white supremacists, neo-fascists and anti-Semites for years, while producing propaganda that Trump and his inner circle have publicly celebrated.” Southern Poverty Law Center, [Accessed 7/01/21]

Posobeic Was One Of The Most Prominent Promoters Of Pizzagate, A QAnon Predecessor That Alleged That Hillary Clinton Was Running A Child Sex Dungeon Out Of A DC Pizza Shop. “This isn’t the first time Posobiec, a former naval intelligence officer, has played a lead role in promoting hoaxes. He was one of the most prominent promoters of the Pizzagate conspiracy theory, that held that the Washington D.C. pizzeria Comet Ping Pong was really a front for a child sex dungeon run by Hillary Clinton. He even went to the restaurant to find out ‘what’s really going on’ there.” Daily Beast, [6/03/20]

TPUSA Claimed That Critical Race Theory Teaches White People To “Hate Their Race.” “CRT is an academic movement that is currently infiltrating our schools, workplaces, and government. CRT teaches white people to hate their race and that America is an inherently racist country. It is also, like many Leftist movements, is a trojan horse to import Marxism.” TPUSA, [6/03/21]

TPUSA Leader Charlie Kirk Has Been Accused Of Spreading An Anti-Semitic Conspiracy Theory

Kirk Is A Promoter Of The “Cultural Marxism” Conspiracy Theory. “The term “Cultural Marxism” has been bandied about by Andrew Breitbart,¹⁰ founder of Turning Point USA Charlie Kirk,¹¹ young right- 7 Before his death, Andrew Breitbart, the founder of Breitbart News, which was later taken over by Steve Bannon, was the main promoter of the “cultural Marxism” conspiracy theory on Fox News. ¹¹ Charlie Kirk, “French Rioters Know the Truth About Democratic Socialism—Let’s Not Bring it to America” Fox News Accessed October 7, 2019 Journal of Social Justice ⁵ wing pundit Ben Shapiro,¹² Washington State Representative Matt Shea,¹³ Alex Jones’s media outlet Infowars, ¹⁴ and members of Brazilian far-right President Jair Bolsonaro’s administration,” Journal Of Social Justice, [2019]

Law And History Professor Samuel Moyn Said “The Legend Of Cultural Marxism Recycles Old Anti-Semitic Tropes To Give Those Who Feel Threatened A Scapegoat.” “And while increasingly popular worries about cosmopolitan elites and economic globalization can sometimes transcend the most noxious anti-Semitism, talk of cultural Marxism is inseparable from it. The legend of cultural Marxism recycles old anti-Semitic tropes to give those who feel threatened a scapegoat.” New York Times Opinion, [11/13/18]

The Southern Poverty Law Center Called “Cultural Marxism” “A Conspiracy Theory With An Anti-Semitic Twist.” “Right-wing ideologues, racists and other extremists have jazzed up political correctness and repackaged it — in its most virulent form, as an anti-Semitic theory that identifies Jews in general and several Jewish intellectuals in particular as nefarious, communistic destroyers. These supposed originators of “cultural Marxism” are seen as conspiratorial plotters intent on making Americans feel guilty and thus subverting their Christian culture.” Southern Poverty Law Center, [8/15/03]

TPUSA Has A History Of Legal Violations

TPUSA Been Accused Of Nonprofit, FEC, And Other Financial Violations

TPUSA Was Accused By Former Workers Of Violating Its Nonprofit Status By Coordinating Directly With Ted Cruz And Marco Rubio’s 2016 Presidential Campaigns And Working On Behalf Of Ginni Thomas, The Wife Of Supreme Court Justice Clarence Thomas. “Several former Turning Point employees told me in interviews that they felt they were asked to participate in activities that crossed lines drawn by campaign-finance laws for groups like theirs. Payden Hall, who worked for Turning Point during the 2016 Presidential campaign, told me that Clanton, who was her boss, e-mailed her at her Turning Point address to make arrangements for her to coördinate with Ginni Thomas, the wife of the Supreme Court Justice Clarence Thomas, to help Ted Cruz's Presidential campaign." New Yorker, [12/21/17]

Turning Point Action Faced An FEC Complaint For FEC Violations During The 2020 Election For Improperly Disclosing Campaign Finance Activity, Only Disclosing $34,000 Of Their $1.4M In 2020 Independent Expenditures. "According to a complaint filed in March with the Federal Election Commission by the watchdog group Crew, Turning Point Action failed to identify donors, as the law requires, for its expenditures, which included online ads and other political operations. After Crew's complaint, the group amended two of their FEC reports and later responded to FEC letters raising similar concerns. The group so far has disclosed donors for just under $34,000 of their $1.4m in 2020 independent expenditures. It's unclear if the FEC has taken any further action, a Crew press secretary said." The Chronicle Of Higher Education* Published An Investigation That Alleged That TPUSA Repeatedly Violated Transparency And Spending Caps By Flooding Student Elections On College Campuses With Dark Money. "The rising young conservative star uses his frequent Fox News appearances to blast college campuses as "islands of totalitarianism" filled with liberal students and faculty members who force their worldview upon those around them. So Mr. Kirk's nonprofit political-advocacy group, Turning Point USA, launched a secret counteroffensive. The goal: getting young conservatives elected to student government at universities around the country." Chronicle Of Higher Education, [5/07/17]
