"That's Stand Up Michigan, as mentioned above the state's leading far-right umbrella group, which has attracted and embraced some of the most marginal figures in the conservative movement, including individuals responsible for making violent threats against the government, but which is nonetheless becoming a powerful force in mainstream Republican politics." In February 2024, Michigan Attorney General Dana Nessel Charged Two Republican Fundraisers For Illegally Funneling Money To Unlock Michigan And For Allegedly Concealing Communications With Then-Michigan Senate Majority Leader Mike Shirkey About Funding Unlock Michigan.

Both Michigan! My Michigan! And Michigan Citizens For Fiscal Responsibility Illegally Funneled Money To Unlock Michigan.

February 2024: Michigan Attorney General Dana Nessel Charged Two Republican Fundraisers, Heather Lombardini And Sandy Baxter, With Illegally Concealing The Names Of Donors To Unlock Michigan By Moving The Money Through Nonprofits. "Attorney General Dana Nessel unveiled criminal charges Wednesday against two longtime Republican fundraisers who were allegedly involved in an effort to conceal the names of donors to a campaign to reduce Gov. Gretchen Whitmer's emergency powers during the COVID-19 pandemic. Heather Lombardini and Sandy Baxter helped raise money for the Unlock Michigan ballot proposal committee in 2020 and 2021 through nonprofit organizations that didn't have to identify their contributors, Nessel said at a press conference. By moving the dollars through the nonprofits first, the donors didn't have to be revealed publicly. If they had given directly to the controversial Unlock Michigan petition effort, the committee would have had to report their names. The two nonprofits, both tied to then-Senate Majority Leader Mike Shirkey, R-Clarklake, gave about $2.7 million to Unlock Michigan.” The Detroit News, [02/21/24]

Two Women, Heather Lombardini And Sandy Baxter, Were Charged With Felonies For Their Roles In Directing Non-Profit Money To Unlock Michigan.

Heather Lombardini Was Charged With Three Misdemeanor Violations And A Felony For Breaking Campaign Finance Laws And Lying About Michigan Citizens For Fiscal Responsibility’s Connection To Unlock Michigan. “On Wednesday, Nessel's office charged Lombardini, co-founder of the Lansing-based consulting firm Bright Spark Strategies, with three misdemeanor violations of the state's campaign finance law and a 14-year felony of uttering and publishing — willfully making or publishing a false statement with the intent to defraud. The felony was tied to Lombardini's signing an affidavit in September 2020, denying that funds had been solicited through the nonprofit Michigan Citizens for Fiscal Responsibility for the purpose of giving the dollars to Unlock Michigan.” The Detroit News, [02/21/24]

Sandy Baxter, Who Raised Money Through Michigan! My Michigan!, Was Charged With Perjury For Concealing Communications With Then-Michigan Senate Majority Leader Mike Shirkey About Funding Unlock Michigan. “Baxter, who has a firm called TopFundraising.com, was involved in raising money for Unlock Michigan through the nonprofit Michigan! My Michigan! and provided investigators ‘false information while under oath,’ Nessel said. Baxter, 63, of Caledonia, a past finance director for the Michigan Republican Party, is charged with perjury, a 15-year felony. She allegedly told investigations in a March 10, 2023, interview that she had no direct contact with Shirkey ‘regarding helping out with donations for Unlock Michigan,’ according to an affidavit from the Attorney General's office. However, Baker had sent an email to Shirkey on Aug. 6, 2020, that included a memo she had written regarding her thoughts on how to raise money for Unlock Michigan, according to the affidavit.” The Detroit News, [02/21/24]
