

Only Citizens Vote Coalition Partners Claimed The 2020 Election Was Stolen—And Their Push For The SAVE Act Is Laying The Groundwork For A 2024 Election Challenge

SUMMARY:

House Republicans appear poised to tie the Safeguard American Voter Eligibility (SAVE) Act, which would amend the National Voter Registration Act to require proof of citizenship to vote in elections, to the upcoming continuing resolution. Recently, several key “election integrity” advocates have declared noncitizen voting as a top issue.

However, noncitizen voting is exceedingly rare and there is no evidence that it impacts election results. Critics have warned that conservatives’ claims of noncitizen voting could lay the groundwork to legitimize a challenge to the 2024 presidential election results on the basis of immigrant voting.

Only Citizens Vote Coalition is a leading conservative group supporting the SAVE Act and pushing against noncitizen voting. It was launched by “election integrity” activist Cleta Mitchell and is composed of over 80 partner organizations. The coalition and its members explicitly warned that “millions of illegal aliens and noncitizens” could vote in the 2024 elections. The press conference launching the SAVE Act featured six groups, all coalition members. Mitchell hosted a recent call with Mike Johnson advocating for the bill. The coalition’s website prominently supports the SAVE Act.

Only Citizens Vote Coalition’s partners are linked to the efforts to overthrow the 2020 election results, and some have already begun to contest 2024 results:

- Several coalition members are linked to Cleta Mitchell, an “election integrity” activist who was a key figure in Trump’s attempt to overturn the 2020 election results. Mitchell is the chair of Public Interest Legal Foundation and founder of the Election Integrity Network (EIN), whose state affiliates have also cast doubt on the validity of the 2020 election results. One affiliate founder and EIN coordinator has already refused to certify a recent Georgia primary election, with support from coalition partner America First Policy Institute.
- Former Trump advisor Stephen Miller promoted “alternate” elections in an attempt to certify Trump as president after his loss, and his group America First Legal has since mimicked election fraud claims.
- The State Freedom Caucus Network’s members and founder were indicted for their roles in the 2020 fake elector schemes.
- Tea Party Patriots Action organized the January 6th “Stop the Steal” rally.

Multiple Only Citizens Vote Coalition’s partners are linked to conservative activist Leonard Leo’s dark money network. Partners including Public Interest Legal Foundation, Foundation For Government Accountability, the Honest Elections Project, and Save Our States were all linked to conservative activist Leonard Leo’s network. Multiple partners appeared to have no other online presence outside of the coalition.

“Election Integrity” Advocates Have Described Noncitizen Voting As A Top Issue Amidst The House’s Push For The SAVE Act, A Bill Requiring Proof Of Citizenship To Vote In Federal Elections

House Republicans Have Pushed The SAVE Act To Require Proof Of Citizenship To Vote In Federal Elections And For A Bill Rolling Back A D.C. Law Allowing Noncitizen Voting

September 2024: Speaker Mike Johnson Appeared Ready To Tie The SAVE Act To The Upcoming Funding Bill

Johnson And GOP Leadership Were Reportedly Discussing A Plan To Move The CR With The SAVE Act Attached. “Johnson and the GOP leadership are discussing a plan to move a CR next week when the House returns that would extend government funding into March 2025 with the SAVE Act attached to it. The SAVE Act requires proof of citizenship in order to register to vote in a federal election. It’s already illegal for undocumented immigrants to cast a ballot in federal elections.” Punchbowl News, [9/2/24]

Chip Roy Indicated That Johnson Was Ready To Tie The SAVE Act To The Upcoming 2025 CR.

“Hard-line conservatives expect Speaker Mike Johnson (R-La.) will embrace their favored tactic by bringing a stopgap bill to the House floor next week that includes a proof-of-citizenship voting bill and would extend government funding into 2025. Such a move would not only grant a win to the House GOP’s conservative wing, but would tee up a showdown with the Democratic-controlled Senate and White House, which both object to the voting bill. Congress faces a Sept. 30 deadline to prevent a shutdown. Johnson’s office has not confirmed the funding plan, but Rep. Chip Roy (R-Texas) — a key member of the House Freedom Caucus who has been in discussions with leadership as he advocates for the strategy — is publicly expressing confidence about the next step.” Hill, [9/3/24]

Republican Lawmakers Called For Attaching The SAVE Act To The Upcoming Stopgap Spending Measure.

“Several Republican lawmakers have called on their colleagues to support attaching a bill that would safeguard elections and require proof of citizenship to vote on an upcoming stopgap spending measure due at the end of next month. Prominent conservative Sens. Ted Cruz, R-Texas, and Mike Lee, R-Utah, posted on X this week pushing for the bill, which would require proof of citizenship before registering to vote in federal elections, to be tethered to a spending bill extension to avoid a government shutdown at the end of the fiscal year. ‘There isn’t a good argument against attaching the SAVE Act to the September spending bill,’ Lee said in one of several posts promoting the idea.” Fox News, [8/30/24]

July 2024: House Republicans Pushed For A Bill Requiring Proof Of Citizenship To Vote In Federal Election

The Safeguard American Voter Eligibility (SAVE) Act Would Amend The National Voter Registration Act To Require Proof Of Citizenship To Vote.

“Sen. Mike Lee (R-UT), alongside Rep. Chip Roy (R-TX), introduced the Safeguard American Voter Eligibility (SAVE) Act. This crucial legislation seeks to ensure that only U.S. citizens participate in federal elections by requiring proof of citizenship for voter registration. [...] The SAVE Act amends the National Voter Registration Act, setting requirements for states to verify U.S. citizenship. It outlines acceptable documentation for proving citizenship and requires states to set up alternative verification processes for citizens without standard documents. Additionally, the legislation compels states to purge non-citizens from voter rolls and establishes federal penalties for intentionally registering non-citizens.” Mike Lee Press Release, [5/8/24]

July 2024: House Minority Whip Katherine Clark Urged House Democrats To Vote No On The Upcoming SAVE Act. “In a whip question — a roundup of the coming week’s votes with instructions for how leadership wants rank-and-file members to vote — House Minority Whip Katherine Clark's (D-Mass.) office told House Democrats they are 'urged to VOTE NO' on the bill. That means that Democratic leadership will send its whip team to cajole colleagues into not supporting the legislation." Axios, [7/6/24]

Mike Johnson Released A 22-Page Report Advocating For The SAVE Act, Including Citing Examples Of Noncitizens Being Removed From Voter Rolls In Some States. "Johnson's office released a 22-page report making the case for the SAVE Act, which points to a 'loophole' in current federal law that only requires voters to attest to their citizenship status, rather than being asked. The report points to examples of non-citizens being removed from voter rolls in a handful of states: 70 in Massachusetts, 137 in Ohio and 1,481 in Virginia." Axios, [7/6/24]

July 10, 2024: The SAVE Act Passed The House 221-198 But Is Unlikely To Move In The Senate. "The Safeguard American Voter Eligibility (SAVE) Act was supported by 216 Republicans and five Democrats, with 198 Democratic lawmakers opposing the bill. It is unlikely to go anywhere in the Democratic-controlled Senate." National Review, [7/10/24]

May 2024: House Republicans Voted For A Bill Rolling Back Noncitizen Voting In Local DC Elections

May 2024: House Republicans Planned To Vote For A Bill Rolling Back A DC Law Allowing Noncitizens To Vote In Local Elections And Advanced Another Measure Requiring Proof Of Citizenship To Register To Vote. "On Thursday, House Republicans plan to vote on a bill that would roll back a District of Columbia law allowing noncitizens to vote in local elections, which they contend is needed to prevent Democrats from expanding the practice to other jurisdictions. And they are advancing another measure that would require states to obtain proof of citizenship, such as a birth certificate or passport, when registering a person to vote." New York Times, [5/23/24]

May 2024: House Republicans Held A Vote To Block Non-Citizen Voting In Local DC Elections Which Stalled In The Senate. "House Republicans previously held a vote in May to block non-citizen voting in local Washington, D.C. elections, on which 52 Democrats broke away from their leadership and voted yes Democratic leadership similarly whipped against that bill, but the National Republican Congressional Committee countered by warning it would go after any Democrat who voted for it. That bill stalled in the Senate, and the SAVE Act is likely to as well if it passes the House." Axios, [7/6/24]

The Study Suggested The Impact Of Noncitizen Voting Would Be “Potentially High Enough To Overturn The Will Of The American People In Major Elections, Including Congressional Seats And The Presidency.”

Overview

Based on the latest available data and an enhanced version of a stress-tested methodology from a scholarly journal, a new study by Just Facts has found that about 10% to 27% of non-citizen adults in the U.S. are now illegally registered to vote.

The U.S. Census recorded more than 19 million adult non-citizens living in the U.S. during 2022. Given their voter registration rates, this means that about two million to five million of them are illegally registered to vote. These figures are potentially high enough to overturn the will of the American people in major elections, including congressional seats and the presidency.

Former Trump Advisor Stephen Miller Stoked Fear Of Noncitizen Voting

Former President Trump’s Longtime Advisor Stephen Miller Claimed Democrats’ Opposition To The Noncitizen Voting Legislation Was “An Effort To End Our Republican Form Of Government.” “And, finally, there was Stephen Miller, longtime Trump adviser and immigration hard-liner. He listed ‘radical attacks on democracy’ like Trump’s indictments. ‘There’s one more form of radical attack on democracy,’ he said, ‘and that is the combination of a wide-open border and obstruction of any effort to verify the citizenship of who votes in our elections. These things are all combined in an effort to end our republican form of government.’ He later added, nearly shouting, that if Democrats oppose the legislation, ‘they will be declaring to the whole country that they want Joe Biden’s illegals to vote in this election. That will be what they are declaring.’ The Washington Post, [5/8/24]

Noncitizen Voting Is Exceedingly Rare And Calls To Ban It Appear To Be Laying The Groundwork To Challenge The 2024 Election Results

There Is No Evidence That Noncitizen Voting Is Common

A Brennan Center Study Found Only 30 Incidents Of Suspected Noncitizen Voting Out Of 23.5 Million Votes In The 2016 Presidential Election. “Our nationwide study of noncitizen or fraudulent voting in 2016 from the perspective of local election officials found: In the jurisdictions we studied, very few noncitizens voted in the 2016 election. Across 42 jurisdictions, election officials who oversaw the tabulation of 23.5 million votes in the 2016 general election referred only an estimated 30 incidents of suspected noncitizen voting for further investigation or prosecution. In other words, improper noncitizen votes accounted for 0.0001 percent of the 2016 votes in those jurisdictions.” Brennan Center, [5/5/17]

Cato Institute: “There Is No Good Evidence That Noncitizens Voted Illegally In Large Enough Numbers To Actually Shift The Outcome Of Elections.” “Survey misuse, misdesign, and misinterpretation is a serious problem that we all witnessed right after the 2020 election. This strain of research appears to be another instance of that. There are likely many problems with America’s voting system and there is no doubt that a non-zero number of non-citizens illegally voted, but there is no good evidence that noncitizens voted illegally in large enough numbers to actually shift the outcome of elections or even change the number of electoral votes.” Cato Institute, [11/25/20]

A Study By The Center For Democracy And Civic Engagement Found 11% Of Voting-Age Citizens Didn’t Have Or Would Have Difficulty Finding Documents Proving Their Citizenship, Which Would Especially Affect Old And Young Voters. “A newly released survey conducted by the Center for Democracy and Civic Engagement and other groups found that 9% of voting-age citizens don’t have or would have difficulty accessing documents proving their citizenship and that 2% of voting-age Americans don’t have any form of such documents. The people who could be disenfranchised by such a requirement would likely be very old and very young Americans, citizens on the lower end of the socioeconomic scale, and low-frequency voters, according to Justin Levitt, a Loyola Law School professor who has worked on voting issues in Democratic administrations.” CNN, [7/10/24]

Calls To Ban Noncitizen Voting Appear To Be Laying The Groundwork To Challenge The 2024 Election Results

POLITICO: Democrats View Cries Of Noncitizen Voting As The Groundwork Of Trump’s Potential 2024 Election Results Challenge. “To Democrats, not only is the latter bill a solution in search of a problem — it’s already illegal for noncitizens to vote in federal elections — but they see it as part of a more insidious effort: In their view, House Republicans are working at Trump’s behest to lay the groundwork for a repeat of 2020’s ‘Stop the Steal’ campaign, this time by seeding unfounded concerns about rampant noncitizen voting that could be trotted out following the 2024 election.” POLITICO, [5/23/24]

“Republicans are pushing legislation to crack down on voting by noncitizens, which happens rarely and is already illegal in federal elections, in a move that reinforces former President Donald J. Trump’s efforts to delegitimize the 2024 results if he loses.” New York Times, [5/23/24]

Representative Morelle: “This Narrative Will Aggravate The Perilous Infection Of Election Denialism.”

“Ranking member Joseph D. Morelle said Americans were confident in the security of the nation’s elections until Republicans, led by former President Donald Trump, started making false claims about the 2020 election. ‘Every one of my majority colleagues understands that this narrative will aggravate the perilous infection of election denialism that is spreading in the American civic body,’ the New York Democrat said.” Roll Call, [5/23/24]

Cleta Mitchell, Leader Of The Only Citizens Vote Coalition, Was A Leading Ally In Trump's Push To Overturn The 2020 Election

New York Times: Cleta Mitchell Was “One Of The Key Figures” In The Scheme To Overturn The 2020 Presidential Election By Claiming Voter Fraud. “In a hotel conference center outside Harrisburg, Pa., Cleta Mitchell, one of the key figures in a failed scheme to overturn Donald J. Trump’s defeat, was leading a seminar on ‘election integrity.’ [...] In the days after the 2020 election, Ms. Mitchell was among a cadre of Republican lawyers who frantically compiled unsubstantiated accusations, debunked claims and an array of confusing and inconclusive eyewitness reports to build the case that the election was marred by fraud. Courts rejected the cases and election officials were unconvinced, thwarting a stunning assault on the transfer of power.” New York Times, [5/30/24]

She was one of the principal players on the infamous call in which Trump implored Georgia Secretary of State Brad Raffensperger to find the 11,780 votes he needed to claim victory. Public Interest Legal Foundation Claimed There Was Voter Errors In 2020

2022: Public Interest Legal Foundation Claimed There Were Tens Of Thousands of Duplicate Voter Registrations In 2020. “Now is the time to ensure that Arizona’s voter registration rolls are in optimal condition before the midterm elections. If voter turnout comes anywhere near 2020 levels, one can expect tight margins in statewide contests and even slimmer room for administrative errors. Looking back at Election Day 2020, Arizona’s voter rolls had tens of thousands of duplicate and potentially unlawful registrations. This research

Trump’s Senior Advisor Stephen Miller Promoted “Alternate” Electors After Trump’s 2020 Loss

December 2020: Stephen Miller Promoted “Alternate” Electors In An Attempt To Certify Trump As President After His Loss. “Stephen Miller, a senior adviser in the White House, appeared on Fox News on Monday morning, before the Electoral College had begun the official process of voting, to promote the so-called ‘alternate’ electors. ‘We have more than enough time to right the wrong of this fraudulent election result and certify Donald Trump as president,’ Mr. Miller said. ‘As we speak, an alternate slate of electors in the contested states is going to vote and we are going to send those results up to Congress. This will ensure that all of our legal remedies remain open.’” New York Times, [12/14/20]

July 2020: Miller Falsely Claimed That Noncitizens Could Easily Vote By Mail In An Attempt To Bolster Trump’s Complaints About Voting By Mail. “In an attempt to bolster President Donald Trump’s false narrative against mail-in ballots, senior White House policy adviser Stephen Miller continued spreading erroneous claims on Friday about voting by mail. In an interview on Fox News, Miller falsely suggested there are no checks on mail-in ballots, claiming that non-citizens can easily vote in presidential election. ‘Nobody who mails in a ballot has their identity confirmed,’ Miller said on Fox News. ‘Nobody checks to see if they’re even a US citizen. August 2023: Mark Meadows Was Indicted On Charges In Georgia For His Alleged Role In Attempting To Overturn The State's 2020 Election Result. "Former U.S. President Donald Trump was hit with a sweeping fourth set of criminal charges on Monday when a Georgia grand jury issued an indictment accusing him of efforts to overturn his 2020 election loss to Democrat Joe Biden. The charges, brought by Fulton County District Attorney Fani Willis, add to the legal woes facing Trump, the front-runner in the race for the Republican nomination for the 2024 presidential election. The sprawling 98-page indictment listed 19 defendants and 41 criminal counts in all. All of the defendants were charged with racketeering, which is used to target members of organized crime groups and carries a penalty of up to 20 years in prison. Among the other defendants were Mark Meadows, Trump's former White House chief of staff, and lawyers Rudy Giuliani and John Eastman." Reuters, [8/15/23]
