

Revised Tax Filings For Kash Patel's Foundation Reveal How His Group Spun January 6th And The "Weaponization" Of Government Into A Profitable Business

SUMMARY: The Kash Foundation is a 501(c)(3) nonprofit formed by former Trump official Kash Patel in 2022. Also known as the Fight With Kash Foundation, the charity claims to pay legal fees and provide financial assistance to federal whistleblowers, veterans, law enforcement officers, and the families of January 6th defendants.

The Kash Foundation reported in both 2022 and 2023 that it did not compensate its board members. But an updated version of the group's 2023 Form 990, dated August 2024, reveals that the organization paid more than $275,000 to a company owned by its vice president, Andrew Ollis.

Another disclosure, submitted to regulators in North Carolina, describes the cushy terms and conditions of the contractual agreement signed between the Kash Foundation and the company, One And Oh, LLC. Under the contract, One And Oh—and thereby its sole owner, Andrew Ollis—would walk away with a minimum of tens of thousands of dollars every year.

The Kash Foundation's previous Form 990s, including an earlier version of the 2023 filing, dated July 2024, did not disclose the organization's relationship with One And Oh. The reason for this omission is unclear.

Kash Patel Is A Former Advisor To President Trump Whom Top Officials In The Trump Administration Opposed When He Was Considered For Powerful Positions

Kash Patel Held A Number Of Roles In The Trump Administration, Including At The National Security Council

Kash Patel's Last Job In The Trump Administration Was Serving As The Former Chief Of Staff To Acting Secretary Of Defense Christopher Miller. "Mr. Patel served as the former Chief of Staff to Acting Secretary of Defense Christopher Miller and is responsible for leading the Secretary's mission at the Department, including his executive staff and providing counsel to the Secretary on all matters concerning the Department's operations." U.S. Department of Defense, accessed [9/13/24]

Prior To His Tenure At The Defense Department, Kash Patel Served As The Deputy Assistant To The President And Senior Director For Counterterrorism At The National Security Council As Well AS The Principal Deputy To The Acting Director Of National Intelligence. "Mr. Patel served as the former Chief of Staff to Acting Secretary of Defense Christopher Miller and is responsible for leading the Secretary's mission at the Department, including his executive staff and providing counsel to the Secretary on all matters concerning the Department's operations. Previously, Mr. Patel served as the Deputy Assistant to the President and Senior Director for Counterterrorism (CT) at the National Security Council (NSC)...Mr. Patel also served as Principal Deputy to the Acting Director of National Intelligence, where he oversaw the operations of all 17 intelligence community agencies and provided the President's Daily Briefing." U.S. Department of Defense, accessed [9/13/24]

Trump Appointees And Career Officials Opposed President Trump When He Entertained Naming Patel To More Powerful Positions

Attorney General Bill Barr: Appointing Kash Patel To Deputy Director Of The FBI Would Happen "Over My Dead Body." "When Trump entertained naming Patel deputy director of the FBI, Attorney General Bill Barr confronted the White House chief of staff and said, 'Over my dead body.'" The Atlantic, [8/26/24]

CIA Director Gina Haspel Threatened To Resign When Trump Considered Naming Kash Patel Deputy Director Of The CIA. "When, in the final weeks of the administration, Trump planned to name Patel deputy director of the CIA, Gina Haspel, the agency's head, threatened to resign. Trump relented only after an intervention by Vice President Mike Pence and others." The Atlantic, [8/26/24]
